Lodging: Consists of cabins and dormitory arrangements assigned as you arrive. Bathrooms are separate in a centrally located shower house. Bed and bath linens are supplied (hand and bath towel, soap, sheets and pillow/pillow slip and two blankets).

Dress: Dress should be casual and warm. Plan for the possibility of rain and bring a flashlight for evening jaunts between buildings.

Food: Registration includes Thursday lunch and dinner, snacks at breaks, party and breakfast and lunch on Friday.

Party: To celebrate our congeniality, there will be a party with alcoholic beverages, soft drinks and snacks sponsored by CLAMS. Pumpkins will be available for carving and will be auctioned off on Friday, proceeds to benefit relief services for victims of the September 11th tragedy.
