

LESSONS LEARNED from HIGH PROFILE CASES and NEW TECHNOLOGY in CRIME INVESTIGATION

This presentation will be given in English

DR. HENRY LEE
FORENSIC SCIENTIST
(李昌鈺)

Dr. Lee will also present a talk in Chinese on FEB 18, 2-5pm, in Bellevue WA – 1008 140th Ave. NE Suite 108. Title: "My Life Experience Investigating High Profile Crimes"-- Contact the TECO Cultural Office: 425.746.3602. (西雅圖華僑文教中心)

Dr. Lee's talk on the UW Campus is Co-Sponsored by:

*East Asia
Library
University of Washington*

TECO-Seattle Taipei Economic and Cultural Office

Celebrated for his work on sensational crime cases such as the O.J. Simpson murder case, the reinvestigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and Taiwan's famous 3-19 Shooting Incident of President Chen Shui-bian and Vice President Annette Lu, among others, Dr. Henry Lee will speak about his life experience as one of the world's foremost forensic scientists.

February 20th, 3:30-5:00pm
University of Washington
Odegaard Undergraduate Library, Rm. 220

Information: 206-543-4490 – UW East Asia Library

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

