

Miss E. Schmoe Tells Engagement To G. Hirabayashi

The engagement of Miss Esther Schmoe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Schmoe, to Gordon Hirabayashi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hirabayashi, was announced early this year.

Miss Schmoe, a graduate of Lincoln High School in Seattle and a student at the University of Washington, expects to enter nurses' training this summer. She volunteered her services as a nurses' aide at the project hospital here last summer.

A senior at the U. of W. at the time of evacuation, Hirabayashi is now working with the American Friends Society in Spokane. His parents are residing in Weiser, Idaho.

No definite plans for the wedding have been made as yet.

Hunt High Sponsors Art Exhibition

Exhibiting the art work of the high school students, an exposition will be held at the High School on April 23 and 24, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, and 1 to 9 p. m.

Dolls and scrolls owned by Ken Kimura will also be exhibited.

Scout Leadership Training Course Will Be Offered

Due to an acute shortage of scoutmasters here, the Community Activities will begin a leadership training course beginning next Friday, April 21, according to W. E. Kipp of the Community Activities.

An invitation is extended to all scoutmasters, assistant scoutmasters, senior patrol leaders, and troop committeemen to attend these meetings. The training course will be under the supervision of Larry Lundin, scout executive of Twin Falls; George Miyazaki, Shig Osawa, C. T. Takahashi, Jiro Aoki, Frank Kanatani, George Fujinaka and William Yeager.

"Boy And Troop Leadership," knot tying demonstrations and practice, will be included in the first course. The second meeting which will be held on April 28 will include bandaging and first aid demonstrations and practice.

The weekly course will be held in 22-11-AB, at 8 a. m. and is scheduled to end in May. Those who pass the leadership training course test at this time will be qualified scoutmasters.

For this course, the Community Activities wishes to borrow copies of the Scoutmaster handbook and a knot board.
