CHARLES A. WATKINS, 1930-1972

PERSONAL PAPERS

The Charles A. Watkins Papers came to the University in November of 1972 as a gift from his widow, Mrs. Reita Watkins, shortly after the death of the professor of English Literature. Though the Collection is small in volume, it nevertheless represents Watkins entire output during a relatively short professional career. Materials comprising the Papers were acquired from his home study, the place where Watkins was accustomed to doing most of his work.

The greatest bulk of these papers consists of notes and writings on Medieval and Black literature. These notes appear in the personal papers section of this collection under the heading TEACHING NOTES and RESEARCH NOTES. This distinction is only approximate and much overlapping will be found. Writings of Watkins appear with their notes under SPEECHES AND WRITINGS.

The following appear as Subgroups in the Papers:

- California. San Francisco State College, English Department
- Ohio. University. English Department
- Washington. University.
- Washington, University, Black Faculty.
- Washington, University, Black Studies Program
- Washington. University, English Department

Black Studies at the University of Washington is an interdisciplinary major. Although he taught in the Black Studies Program, Charles A. Watkins was hired and paid under the English Department budget, thus he was ultimately responsible to the English Department. Interoffice correspondence of the Black Studies Program and the English Department frequently overlaps.

Two folders of confidential material are located at the end of this collection and are not to be used by unauthorized persons.

The following series order has been used in the organization of Personal Papers and Subgroups. It should be noted that not all series may be contained within the Personal Papers group or any given Subgroup:

- BIOGRAPHICAL / ORGANIZATION
- INCOMING LETTERS
- OUTGOING LETTERS
- GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE
- INTEROFFICE CORRESPONDENCE
- MINUTES
- BULLETINS
- REPORTS
- SPEECHES AND WRITINGS
- CONFERENCES AND CONVENTIONS
- NOTES
