 *Central Lutheran Church was formed from an historic merger of St. Luke's (ELC), Holy Trinity (ULC) and Immanuel (Augustana) Lutheran Churches. One hundred thirty-four men and women signed the charter roll of the first congregation of Central. The church's museum displays pictures, articles and artifacts from the congregation's history.

*This church was disbanded about 1935. The Venersborg Land and Colonization Co. was the developer of the community and donated 1 acre of land for the church. John W. Ovall was the minister who came from Portland to organize the church in 1910. The Venersborg Covenant Church has the records which still exist from the Methodist-Episcopal Church of Venersborg.
