The records in this accession fall into three major sections, with the Longshoremen's records—the main body of the accession—in the third section preceded by earlier organizations which merged to form Local #3.

The first section contains the records of the predecessor organization, United Fishermen's Union of the Pacific, Puget Sound District. It was composed of a dozen or more locals and several larger member unions.

In 1946 the UFU transferred all its property and funds to the International Fishermen and Allied Workers of America, Pacific District, Local #3. This predecessor organization, IFAWA, forms the second section. It included about 15 small locals and some larger member unions.

The third section contains the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union records. IFAWA merged with the ILWU in 1950, bringing the numerous predecessor locals under the main organization of the ILWU. Also in the third section are a number of subgroups documenting ILWU activity in external organizations such as the Maritime Federation of the Pacific.
