CORNISH SCHOOL

Introduction:

Coll. 235

The Cornish School photography collection has been arranged in a manner designed to reflect the activities of the school in the areas of art, music, drama, and dance from ca. 1914 to ca. 1960. Participants identifiable with a particular activity of the school were placed in the series reflecting their endeavors. Those individuals, whose activities were indiscernible, were placed in the general series. The school's stage productions were separated in an identical manner. A name index was prepared keying an individual's photo to the series in which it was placed.

To obtain a complete and comprehensive overview of the school's contributions to the cultural milieu of Seattle, a researcher should refer to the book Miss Aunt Nellie; the Autobiography of Nellie C. Cornish (Seattle: University of Washington Press) and to the Cornish School records available in the Manuscript Division of this library.
