Supporters of the University of Washington Libraries celebrated a glorious evening on March 6, 2002 at The Ruins. A sold out crowd mingled with artists, ate and drank at the private supper club and participated in a silent auction all to raise money for the UW Libraries to purchase Mary Randlett's photograph collection.

The silent auction added $33,000 to the fund. More than half the needed amount has been raised!

Randlett's expansive body of work will be housed in the Libraries' Manuscripts, Special Collections, University Archives division. Her work is held in more than forty permanent collections nation wide, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Smithsonian Institution and major Northwest collections.

Scholars, artists, historians, students, architects, photographers and researchers, to name a few, will draw on these unique and irreplaceable materials.

If you were unable to attend the event, but would like to contribute toward the purchase of the Randlett Collection, please send a check made payable to the UW Foundation to University of Washington Libraries, Box 352900, Seattle, WA, 98195-2900.
